

Dept. of Anthropology and Ethnography, University of Aarhus and Network for Anthropological Analysis of Welfare invite to

RESEARCH SEMINAR 17+18 November 2005:

Investigating welfare from an anthropological perspective

Sted: Konferencetret, Mødelokale 2 og Preben Hornung Stuen i Studenternes Hus, Aarhus Universitet, Ndr. Ringgade 3, 8000 Århus C.

Program

Thursday, 17 November

- 9.30 – 9.45 Welcome by Lotte Meinert, Susanne Højlund and Eva Gulløv
- 9.45 – 10.00 Introduction by Susanne Højlund
- 10.00 – 10.45 Professor Richard Jenkins, University of Sheffield, UK:
Problematizing policy: culture, modernity and government.
- 10.45-11.00 Break
- 11.00-12.00 Professor of Social Policy John Clarke, The Open University, UK:
What's culture got to do with it? Welfare, states and nations.
- 12.15-13.15 Discussion. Discussant: Steffen Jöhncke
- 13.15-14.15 Lunch
- 14.15-15.00 Professor Michael Seltzer, Faculty of Economics, Public Administration and Social Work, Oslo University College,
Norway:
*Listening to and Observing Welfare States as an Anthropologist:
Research among its clients in Scandinavia and Eastern Europe.*
- 15.00-15.15 Break
- 15.15-16.00 Dr. Susanne Langer, Research Associate, Cardiff School of Social Sciences, Cardiff University, UK:
'Claiming new things': how bureaucratic technologies create persons and objects
- 16.15-17.15 Discussion. Discussant: Susanne Højlund

Friday, 18 November

- 9.00 – 9.45 Professor emerita, Dorothy Smith, Department of Sociology &
Equity Studies in Education at the University of Toronto, Canada :

Institutional Ethnography- the significance of texts for the organization of power.

9.45-10.00	Break
10.00-10.45	Professor Susan Wright, University of Education, Denmark: Anthropology of policy: studying processes of welfare reform.
10.45-11.00	Break
11.00-12.00	Discussion. Discussant: Eva Gulløv
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-14.45	Summary and discussion of perspectives for anthropological welfare-studies

Arrangeret af Lektor Eva Gulløv, DPU, adjunkt Lotte Meinert og Susanne Højlund, Afd. for Antropologi og Etnografi, Aarhus Universitet. Kontakt: etnosh@hum.au.dk
Ved tilmelding og praktiske spørgsmål dog: sekr. Ulla Rasmussen, Center for Kulturforskning, Aarhus Universitet, tlf: +4589426900, mail: kultur@hum.au.dk
Opdateringer af arrangementet kan findes på www.au.dk/cfk